The Office of the Governor Proclamation

*State Capitol
Boise*

WHEREAS, John Crumb came to Idaho in 1969 as an employee of the Idaho Department of Lands; and

WHEREAS, John Crumb's distinguished career in public service spanned more than twenty-seven years as the Chief of the Bureau of Fire Management; and

WHEREAS, John Crumb laid the foundation for a modern system of Forest Fire Protection in Idaho; and

WHEREAS, John Crumb worked toward cooperation between the federal, state, and local fire protection providers to foster and develop a system of interagency cooperation in order to provide safe, cost effective fire protection for the citizens of Idaho; and

WHEREAS, John Crumb's leadership has earned him respect among forest fire authorities throughout the western United States; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that we recognize this great Idahoan whose vision and tenacity helped make Idaho the great state that it is today;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DIRK KEMPTHORNE, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim the state building formerly known as the Idaho Department of Lands Fire Warehouse, will henceforth be known as the

in Idaho.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this eighteenth day of March in the year of our Lord two thousand and five and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred twenty-ninth and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred fifteenth.
